Telephone Reassurance Program - At The Shepherd's Center in Kernersville offers telephone reassurance to the aging and disabled in our community who could use a little conversation to start their day. Many older adults in our community suffer from loneliness, loss of friends, or are without family nearby.
The Shepherd's Center would like to extend their telephone reassurance program and are asking for referrals of those you know in the Kernersville and surrounding communities who could benefit from volunteers calling them daily on Monday thru Friday. The telephone reassurance program provides a means of socialization and helps individuals feel secure in knowing a volunteer is checking on their safety. The goal is for all aging and disabled members of our community to have a sense of belonging and receiving a daily phone call can provide just that. To learn more about the program or to make a referral please contact Debbi Butner at 996-6696 or debbi@shepctrkville.com.
