125 Years of
UNION CROSS MORAVIAN CHURCH HISTORY
Part I

Our story begins in 1860. That year the Union Army set up camp at a crossroads, raised the flag, and named the area Union Cross.

Thirty-three years later on July 9, 1893, Mr. Danny Hine held a Sunday School class in a grove of trees (located across the road from our present sanctuary – the third one) known as Uncle Robe's grove. This little band, who were actually members of Friedland Moravian Church, was trying to organize a church in their own community. The results of this meeting only God could know, but this small band had faith.

On the first Sunday in August, Rev. Woosley from Friedland came to the little village of Union Cross and provided the first sermon ever preached there. Response was so positive that a Sunday school was formed and the next Sunday on August 13, James T. Lineback organized it. Br. James Korner of Kernersville also helped. (Rev. Woosley was the first minister and served the people of Union Cross faithfully for a year at the pay of about $60, or the cost of his buggy. Illness forced him to retire.)

Dr. J.L. Johnson gave this group a small piece of land beside his home. The first sanctuary was completed in 1895 and the first service was held on December 1. Sunday School classes were held every Sunday at 1pm with five classes in the sanctuary and two in the back classrooms. Worship service was held every third Sunday at 2:30pm.
