UNION CROSS MORAVIAN CHURCH HISTORY
Part III

The first service in the “old sanctuary” was held on January 29, 1950. The sanctuary was built by the men of the church on Saturdays until the work was completed. The women did their part by providing nourishing meals for the workers. They even worked one Thanksgiving and ate the holiday dinner on the church grounds.

The building was paid for by the following year and the congregation celebrated by burning the notes to the tune of “Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow.”

Total cost: $29,796.23.

The “new fellowship hall” was built in 1957 and dedicated on November 10 of that year with Bishop Edmund Schwarze presiding. Lew Swiam was the pastor at this time.

Because the Sunday School classes were becoming overcrowded, the Christian Education Wing was added to the fellowship hall in 1967 at a cost of $50,990 under Rev. Kapp’s pastorate. The “Scout Hut” was also built this year.

The first Church Bazaar was held in 1976 by what is now known as the Christian Fellowship Class. The pavilion was built in 1978.

On December 28, 1980, Ground-breaking ceremonies were conducted by Pastor Iobst for the third sanctuary which would seat 300 people...
